

From: Les Merton Dialect poetry anthology

To celebrate another year of Poetry Cornwall / Bardhonyeth Kernow magazine and the success of Cornwall - an anthology of poetry and photographs. I am going to publish a perfect bound dialect poetry anthology with London publisher Francis Boutle. All poems must be in a dialect, a glossary with the meanings of unusual dialect words used should be submitted with every poem.
Submission Guidelines

1. The closing date is 31st March 2013. There is no entry fee.
2. The area of dialect must be named in brackets under the poem title.
3. Only two poems per entrant: written phonetically in a dialect known to the writer.
4. A glossary of the meanings of unusual dialect words should be submitted with every poem.
5. Poems must be unpublished and not accepted for publication elsewhere.
6. Poems should be no longer than 36 lines including verse breaks.
7. Poems may be written in any form but must be the original work of the entrant.
8. Poets name, address, email and telephone number on every poem.
9. Poets should retain copies of their work as entries will not be returned.
10. Poems for the anthology will be selected by representatives of Francis Boutle and Poetry Cornwall their decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
11. Please send poems and glossary in the body of an email and write Dialect Anthology in the subject line.

Send to: poetrycornwall@yahoo.com

12. Or post with SSAE to:
Dialect Poetry Anthology
11a Penryn Street,
Redruth,
Cornwall
TR15 2SP